

LOCAL DOTS

The Zion democratic club will meet at Zion Saturday, April 29, at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Glenn McCants, of Winnsboro, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Annie E. Witherspoon.

Don't fail to attend the entertainment at school auditorium to-night. Benefit graded school dictionary fund. Admission 25 cents.

Messrs. I. D. Hood, W. H. Millen, E. W. Sistare, P. M. Lathan and Jos. A. Williams enjoyed a fish fry Wednesday near the Witherspoon bottoms on Catawba river. They report a pleasant outing.

The News calls the attention of the shoppers to the Easter windows of the Lancaster Department store, the Lancaster Pharmacy, the Edwards & Horton store, the Bennett-Terry Co., the Barnette store, and in fact, all who have endeavored to "shine up" a little for Easter.

Messrs. G. W., J. T. and J. J. Montgomery, of Lancaster county, were here yesterday. They are brothers, and the only children of the family. Yesterday was each one's birthday, and there are just eight years difference in their ages, one being 30, one 28 and one 46 years old.—Pageland Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Ganson Funderburk of Lancaster county, S. C., are spending several days in the city with relatives and friends. They are at the Selwyn. Mrs. Funderburk, prior to her marriage Tuesday in Monroe, by Rev. Mr. Abernathy, was Miss Alice Plyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Plyler of the Tabernacle section of Lancaster county and one of the most popular and accomplished young women of that community.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excitable; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Mr. Funderburk is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Funderburk of the same section, and is a leading young farmer. Both are exceedingly well known in Charlotte.—Charlotte Observer.

Last week in the forecast of commencement exercises at Waxhaw graded school we announced that Rev. H. C. Murchison would deliver the address Wednesday afternoon. We desire to make a correction. It is Rev. H. R. Murchison, of Lancaster, who will make the address. There will be no preaching services in any of the churches in town Sunday morning, all giving way for the sermon at the school house.—Waxhaw Enterprise.

The Easter recital given at the Baptist church last Tuesday evening was indeed a pronounced success. The program, as arranged and rendered by Mrs. Ola P. Gatling, being so ably assisted by Mrs. Barron Steele, Prof. R. M. McDermid and Miss Mary Alice Gatling, was certainly a rare treat, and was greatly appreciated by the large number of people present.

Mrs. Durant, of Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, S. C., will arrive in the city this evening to spend Easter with her sister, Mrs. Julia Porter.

PERSONALS

W. M. Stevens made a business trip to Columbia to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Porter and E. Clyburn Wilson motored to Columbia Sunday. They report a pleasant trip. (Continued on Page 8)

SOCIAL NEWS

Mrs. Alice Ross Ewart has announced the approaching marriage of her daughters, Misses Marilla and Sophie; Miss Marilla to be married to Rev. John Mills Bigham, of Huntersville, N. C., and Miss Sophie to Dr. Charles Brice Draffin, of Columbia. The ceremony will take place in the Yorkville A. R. U. church, June 15th.—Yorkville Enquirer, June 18.

In honor of several home guests and other friends here for the U. D. C. conference, Mrs. Ira B. Jones, Sr., entertained at a beautifully appointed dinner at six o'clock Wednesday. Covers were laid for twelve and an elaborate course dinner was served, after which a delightful evening was spent in this hospitable home. Among the guests of honor was Mrs. U. R. Brooks, of Columbia, who was entertained by Mrs. Jones during the convention.

Mrs. J. H. Witherspoon's party yesterday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Shirley Montgomery, of Concord, was a most enjoyable affair. The rooms were springlike with vases of dogwood and low bowls of red tulips. There were seven tables of players, four of auction bridge and three of rummy. Mrs. Ernest Moore won the prize for highest score at bridge, a dainty piece of hand-made lingerie, the work of the hostess. Miss Boss McManus won the rummy prize, a box of hand-made handkerchiefs. A similar prize went to the guest of honor and another was the consolation, cut by Miss Effie Poag. After the games delicious refreshments, in two courses, were served, with a color scheme of green and white effectively carried out.

Most of the rural schools have closed but let every teacher who is still on the job practice the children regularly in the fire drill. Preparedness for such emergency cannot be too strongly urged.

How to Treat Croup Externally

Rub Vick's "Vapo-Rub" Salve well over the throat and chest for a few minutes—then cover with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the covering loose around the neck so that the soothing medicated vapors arising may loosen the choking phlegm and ease the difficult breathing. One application at bedtime insures against a night attack. 25c, 50c, or $1.00. At druggists.

NINE-TENTHS of the business of the world is done by checks.
Why not do yours that way?

Your money is safer in a good bank than anywhere else. It is at your call at any time and you can pay it out simply by writing your check, a cleaner way than handling the actual bills and silver. Then, too, the check is a good receipt for payment, for, of course, the payee can't get the money—your money—from the bank, until he receipts for it.

May Avoid Break

Germany may make good assurances already given and avoid the break. But if the Berlin government prefers the open breach the American people must meet the issue squarely and support their president. N. O. Times Picayune.

Find Bandits Guilty.

El Paso, April 20.—The six Villa bandits placed on trial at Deming, Texas, yesterday charged with killing Charles D. Miller in the Columbus raid, were found guilty of murder in the first degree, according to word received here.
